Legal Profession Uniform Law Application Act 2014

PRACTITIONER REMUNERATION ORDER

(includes GST)

We, the LEGAL COSTS COMMITTEE, being the persons authorised pursuant to the Legal Profession Uniform Law Application Act 2014 do hereby in pursuance and exercise of the powers thereby conferred upon us order and direct in the manner following:

1. This Order may be cited as the Practitioner Remuneration Order and shall come into operation on 1 January 2024.

2. This Order applies -

(a) in the case of business to which the Second, Third and Fourth Schedule applies - to all business for which instructions are received on or after the day on which this Order comes into operation; and

(b) in the case of any other business to which this Order applies - to all business transacted on or after the day on which this Order comes into operation.

3. (1) The Practitioner Remuneration Order commenced 1 January 2023 is hereby revoked.

(2) Notwithstanding the revocation of the Practitioner Remuneration Order commenced 1 January 2023, the provisions of that Order shall continue to apply to and in relation to business, other than business referred to in Clause 2, in all respects as if that Order had not been revoked.

4. (1) In this Order and in the Schedules, unless inconsistent with the context or subject-matter -

"Folio" means 100 words or figures or words and figures.

"In print" means in print on a form readily available for sale to the public.

"Document" has the same meaning as under Section 3(1) of the Evidence Act 2008.

"Typewriting" means the production and presentation of words figures and symbols on pages or otherwise by means of hand writing typewriting or the use of word processing equipment or any other form of mechanical or electronic production other than photocopying.

(2) A reference in this Order and the Schedules to the consideration is a reference -

(a) where the consideration relates to a matter or transaction and is not wholly monetary, to the sum of the monetary consideration and the value of the real or personal property included in the consideration that is not monetary;

(b) where the consideration relates to a matter or transaction comprising land and personal property, to the sum of the consideration for the land and the personal property;

(c) where the consideration or part of the consideration for a matter or transaction is marriage or any other consideration which is not monetary, or where there is no consideration for a matter or transaction, to the value of the subject matter of the transaction;

(d) where the consideration relates to a mortgage, bill of sale or stock mortgage by which a specified or ascertainable sum is secured, to the sum of the amount secured and the amount of any other specified or ascertainable sum agreed to be advanced and secured; and

(e) where the consideration relates to the sale of an equity of redemption -

(i) where the purchaser is the mortgagee and the purchaser employs the legal practitioner who prepared the mortgage - to the sale price; and

(ii) in any other case, to the sum of the consideration and the amount of any principal sum owing under the mortgage at the time of sale.

(3) Where the consideration relates to a matter or transaction comprising land under the provisions of the Transfer of Land Act 1958 and other land, the remuneration of the legal practitioner shall be apportioned according to the respective values of the properties in question and remuneration may be charged in respect of each document necessarily prepared.

5. (1) The remuneration of legal practitioners in respect of business connected with sales, purchases, leases, mortgages, wills, settlements, formation and registration of companies, deeds of arrangement and other matters of conveyancing, including negotiating for or procuring an agreement for a loan, and in respect of other business not being business in any action or transacted in any court or in the chambers of any Judge or in the offices of the Master of the Supreme Court Prothonotary or other officer of any court and not being otherwise litigious business, shall, subject to this Order -

(a) where the Second, Third or Fourth Schedule applies, be in accordance with that Schedule; and

(b) in any other case, be in accordance with the First Schedule.

(2) Where the business undertaken is the whole of the work for which some charge or charges is or are prescribed by the Second or Third Schedules but is not substantially completed but this occurs at the request of or with the concurrence of the client or the client chooses to make use of any of the work done, the charges which may be made shall be a rateable part of the relevant charges prescribed by those Schedules proportionate to the extent of the work done or the work so made use of, as the case may be.

(3) Where the business undertaken is a portion of the work for which some charge or charges is or are prescribed by the Second or Third Schedules -

(a) if it is completed or substantially completed, the charge which may be made shall be a rateable part of the relevant charges prescribed by those Schedules proportionate to the extent of the work so undertaken; and

(b) if it is not completed or substantially completed, and this occurs at the request of or with the concurrence of the client, or if the client chooses to make use of any of the work done, the charges which may be made shall be a rateable part of the relevant charges prescribed by those Schedules proportionate to the extent of the work done or the work so made use of.

(4) In all cases where matters or transactions for which charges are prescribed by the Second or Third Schedules -

(a) involve work which in normal circumstances is not usual and necessary to complete such matter or transaction on behalf of a client, or require the consent of any Government, public authority or third party in respect of business transacted and performed, a further charge in respect thereof may be made in accordance with the First Schedule; or

(b) are of unusual difficulty or complexity, or involve skill or responsibility which in normal circumstances is not usual and necessary to complete the matter or transaction on behalf of a client, a further charge in respect thereof may be made which is fair and reasonable having regard to all the circumstances of the case.

6. The charges in the First Schedule relate to ordinary cases, but in extraordinary cases the Costs Court may increase or diminish such charges if, for any special reason, it thinks fit.

7. In addition to the remuneration prescribed by clause 5, there may be charged -

(a) disbursements for duties or fees payable at public offices or fees payable to municipalities or public authorities, surveyors, valuers, auctioneers or counsel, or for travelling and accommodation expenses, duty stamps, postage stamps, courier or delivery charges, electronic systems of communication and other disbursements reasonably and properly incurred and paid;

(b) in accordance with the First Schedule -

(i) payments necessarily made for correspondence between legal practitioners where one legal practitioner is employed as agent; and

(ii) charges by an agent against his or her principal or such lesser amount as is reasonable having regard to the charge that the principal legal practitioner may be entitled to make to his or her client; and

(c) charges at the rate of $19.70 to $28.90 per quarter hour in respect of business necessarily transacted at the request of the client outside the normal business hours of the legal practitioner;

8. (1) In all cases to which the remuneration prescribed by the Second or Third Schedules applies a legal practitioner may, within fourteen days from the time of undertaking any business, by notice in writing to his or her client and when any third party is obliged by contract or otherwise to pay that client's costs, by notice in writing to such third party elect to charge under the First Schedule.

(2) Upon such election, the client may terminate the retainer and the First Schedule shall apply in respect of services rendered prior to the termination of the retainer.

(3) (a) A third party obliged to pay a legal practitioner's client's costs may pay either the amount charged under the First Schedule or the amount which, but for the legal practitioner's election, would have been payable under the Second or Third Schedule, whichever is less, in full satisfaction of his obligation.

(b) The client shall pay the difference between the amount charged by the legal practitioner and the amount payable by the third party.

9. Where a matter or transaction to which the Second Schedule applies comprises land the title to which is a right to occupy the land as a residence area pursuant to Division 11 of Part I of the Land Act 1958 or a licence pursuant to Section 138(1)(g) of the Land Act 1958, the appropriate charge shall be the charge specified in that Schedule for a similar transaction comprising land under the provisions of the Transfer of Land Act 1958.

10. (1) Where a legal practitioner -

(a) is authorised by the First Schedule to make any charge in connection with the sale, purchase, transfer or conveyance of land and is also authorised by the Second Schedule to make any charge in respect of the same land and the transaction is completed at the same time for the same client; or

(b) is authorised by the Second Schedule to make charges in respect of two or more matters or transactions relating to the same land completed at the same time for the same client -

then each charge under Part A or Part C of the Second Schedule shall be reduced by one-third or to a sum equal to the highest of those charges (before a reduction) together with the sum of $190.80 for each additional charge, whichever is the greater.

(2) Where, in connection with any transaction to which the Second Schedule or Part A, C or D of the Third Schedule applies, a legal practitioner acts -

(a) for both mortgagee and mortgagor; or

(b) for both lessor and lessee; or

(c) for both creditor and debtor -

the legal practitioner may not, in respect of the transaction, charge more than he or she would have been entitled to charge if he or she were acting only for the mortgagee, lessor or creditor as the case may be.

11. In respect of loans not exceeding $110,000 where a legal practitioner acts for a society registered under the provisions of the Co-operative Housing Societies Act 1958 his or her charge under Part A or Part C of the Second Schedule shall be reduced to 75 per cent of the charge otherwise appropriate.

12. The Second and Third Schedules shall not apply to matters or transactions concerning any premises subject to a licence as defined in the Liquor Control Reform Act 1988 and, accordingly, the First Schedule shall apply to those matters or transactions.

FOURTH SCHEDULE

PART A - NEGOTIATING FOR OR PROCURING AN AGREEMENT FOR A LOAN WHEN THE MONEY IS IN FACT LENT AND THE LEGAL PRACTITIONER IS NEITHER THE LENDER NOR ONE OF THE LENDERS

272. In respect of money lent upon the security of real or leasehold estate or personal property – 1.09 per centum upon the amount lent.

Note:

If a legal practitioner negotiates for or procures an agreement for the renewal of a loan he or she shall not in respect thereof be entitled to charge remuneration in accordance with this item and his or her charge shall be 0.55 per centum upon the amount of the renewed loan.

273. (1) If a legal practitioner negotiates for or procures an agreement for a loan for his or her client being the borrower or mortgagor through the agency of any person (other than a legal practitioner) to whom a procuration fee is payable then he or she shall only be entitled to remuneration in accordance with the First Schedule in respect of negotiating for or procuring such agreement.

(2) If a legal practitioner negotiates for or procures an agreement for a loan for his or her client being the borrower or mortgagor through the agency of another legal practitioner then the remuneration provided by item 272 shall be divided between the legal practitioners, two-thirds being payable to the legal practitioner for the mortgagee and one-third to the legal practitioner for the mortgagor.

274. The remuneration prescribed under item 272 or 273 shall not include disbursements reasonably incurred in travelling from any place of business and home respectively of such legal practitioner and disbursements otherwise reasonably incurred in the inspection of the property mortgaged or charged and in procuring the agreement for the loan which disbursements may be charged in addition to the remuneration so prescribed.

PART B - FOR NEGOTIATING FOR OR PROCURING AN AGREEMENT FOR A LOAN WHEN THE MONEY IS IN FACT LENT AND THE LEGAL PRACTITIONER OR THE LEGAL PRACTITIONER'S NOMINEE COMPANY IS EITHER THE LENDER OR ONE OF THE LENDERS

275. When the legal practitioner, or a nominee company of which the legal practitioner or a partner of the legal practitioner is a director, is either the lender or one of the lenders no remuneration shall be charged for negotiating or procuring the loan, except in the following cases:

(a) when the legal practitioner arranges and obtains the loan from a person for whom he or she acts and subsequently by arrangement with his or her client lends the money and executes or signs the security in his or her own name or the name of a nominee company of which he or she or his or her partner is a director, he or she or such nominee company being in fact trustee or agent for the person aforesaid; or

(b) when the legal practitioner contributes portion of the money in fact lent, and arranges and obtains the remaining portion from another person not being his or her partner as a legal practitioner, not being a co-trustee with him or her in relation to the money lent.

276. In either of the foregoing cases a charge for negotiating or procuring an agreement for a loan may be made at the rate prescribed in Part A in respect of the amount so obtained from such other person.

Note:

If a legal practitioner negotiates for or procures an agreement for the renewal of a loan from such other person he or she shall not in respect thereof be entitled to charge remuneration in accordance with item 272 and his or her charge shall be 0.55 per centum upon the amount of the renewed loan.
